14TH ASIA-PACIFIC TRAINING WORKSHOP ON EIU
EIU, FOSTERING GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP

1. BACKGROUND

Acknowledging the critical importance of preparing educators towards a Culture of Peace, APCEIU has been organizing capacity-building training workshops on Education for International Understanding (EIU) for educators. The Asia-Pacific Training Workshop on EIU (APTW), APCEIU’s flagship training programme, has been held annually since 2001. Arranged as a ‘Training of Trainers (TOT),’ APTW aims to enhance the participants’ knowledge, skills, and commitment to EIU and further enable them to competently design and implement EIU (training) activities in their local and national contexts.

This year’s APTW, under the subtitle of “EIU, Fostering Global Citizenship,” will provide a platform where participants learn, experience, share and reflect upon various issues on education to foster global citizenship in today’s complex, interconnected society. Fostering global citizenship is one of the three key priorities of UN’s Global Education First Initiative (GEFI) and is in line with EIU’s core values in terms of the promotion of learning to live together to forge more just, peaceful, and inclusive societies.

The session format of this intensive 9-day Workshop includes lectures, discussions, workshops, in-depth seminars, field visits, action plan development as well as formal and informal work in small groups, all through which participants can learn from the series of experiences encountered during the Workshop and from each other.

Education for International Understanding (EIU)
 Interchangeably called GCE (Global Citizenship Education), EIU is a holistic and multi-dimensional education initiative to promote learning to live together for a Culture of Peace.
