Living Environment

Start-Up

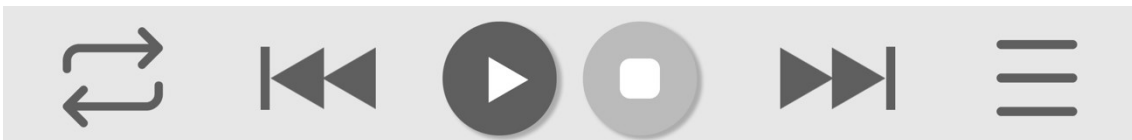

Emily : These are traditional houses, aren't they? Do people still live in them?

Kaho : Yes, but it's rare. This area is registered as a World Heritage Site. Do you like the atmosphere?

Emily : Yes, I do. This town is as peaceful as my hometown. But now, I prefer the convenience of living in a big city like Kobe.

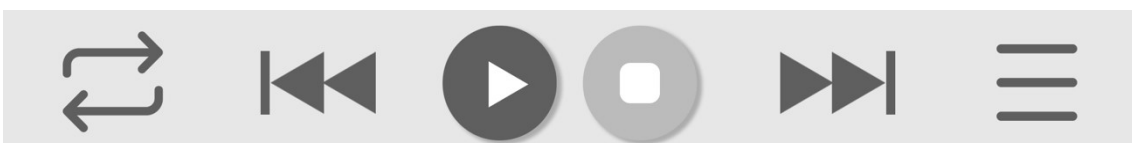

Kaho : I like Kobe, too, but I think this kind of place is more relaxing than a big city.

Emily : Well, there are good points and bad points about both places.
