

CAMPUS Asia Program

Overview

- CAMPUS Asia is a program that promotes quality-assured student exchanges through cooperation among the governments, quality assurance organizations, and universities of Japan, China, and Korea.
- From FY2011, ten pilot programs were selected through joint screening by the three countries and conducted.
- Since FY2016, in addition to eight programs that applied from among the ten pilot programs, nine new programs by the university consortium participating in CAMPUS Asia have been added for a total of 17 programs that have begun the full-fledged implementation of their activities.
- Record/plan of exchanges (no. of Japanese students sent abroad, foreign students received in Japan)
 - FY 2011-2015 (actual): Sent: 1,392, received: 1,485
 - FY 2016-2020 (planned): Sent: 2,199; received: 2,076

FY2017 budget: 650 million yen

Details

- At the 2nd Japan-China-Korea Summit in October 2009, Japan proposed, and agreement was reached on, trilateral high-quality inter-university exchanges.
- In April 2010, the trilateral 1st Experts Meeting was held in Tokyo (Japan side chairman: Yuichiro Anzai, President, Japan Society for the Promotion of Science). Agreement was reached on “CAMPUS Asia”* as the name for the program.

*Stands for: “Collective Action for Mobility Program of University Students in Asia”

- In April 2015, at the 5th China-Japan-Korea Committee for Promoting Exchange and Cooperation among Universities, the three countries agreed that, with the end of the pilot program period, from FY2016, they would: 1) increase the number of trilateral inter-university collaboration programs, including the exchanges carried out as pilot programs, 2) make efforts to expand the collaborative framework of the Program (in the mid- and long-term) to the ASEAN countries.
- January 2016: First Japan-China-Korea Education Ministers’ Meeting
Ministers expressed their intention to expand financial support for the CAMPUS Asia Program, which began its operations as a full-fledged program in September 2016.
- October 2016: Actual full-fledged implementation of CAMPUS Asia programs started (total of 17 programs).
