

Do you know about the “Act for the Promotion of Measures to Prevent Bullying ”?

Formulated on June 21, 2013, promulgated on June 28, 2013, enacted on September 28 2013

The Act for the Promotion of Measures to Prevent Bullying stipulates basic policies and measures for society to deal with bullying.

The law requires schools and local governments to “systematically” deal with school bullying.

- Schools and communities are required to formulate basic policies to deal with bullying and to implement measures based on the Act and the basic policies.
- All schools must establish an in-house organization to handle bullying cases. The organ will play a central role to advance measures on the prevention, early detection and treatment of bullying.

Schools will be the contact point for receiving bullying reports.

- Please report any cases of suspected bullying to the school.

An investigative panel will be launched for “serious cases of bullying”

- For cases of bullying in which victims suffer serious physical or psychological damage, an investigative panel will be established. The panel will include experts to examine the facts.

Definition of bullying (based on Article 2 of the Act for the Promotion of Measures to Prevent Bullying)

Bullying (including cyber bullying) is defined as an act inflicted on a child by another child having a certain degree of relationship with the bullied victim (for example, both attending the same school), which causes the victim either physical or psychological pain.
